Especially, Indian diaspora literature summarizes precisely a writer's temper, conflicts and doubts. It examines themes such as cross cultural conflicts, identity crisis, gender, violence surroundings, the problem of adjustment, predicament of characters, and condition of immigrants. It frequently presents the characters as survivors against the brutalities who are often victimized by various forms of social oppression. It invites readers to understand a fascinating study of the problem of displaced personalities in West and East.

Outcome for ONE DAY NATIONAL LEVEL ONLINE CONFERENCE On INDIAN DIASPORA LITERATURE IN ENGLISH :

The Indian Diaspora has developed phenomenally in terms of numerical power, financial prowess and Cultural impact in the international arena. Indian governments under both national political parties have therefore devised many measures to channel the might of the Indian Diaspora into serving the interests of India, both at home and abroad. The Indian government has tried to bring NRIs closer to India through conventions like Pravasi Bharatiya Divas and by conferring voting rights. The efforts, however well intentioned, have not been able to fully harness the full potential of the Indian diaspora. The NRI community unfortunately is yet to find a fitting advocate of its complaints and issues, in the Indian government. Beyond the sound and space of Indian values and the essence of being Indians, there lies a disenchanted and disappointed majority among the Indian Diaspora that seeks better recognition from India and a more engaging relationship with the motherland. At the same time, even the Indian government feels quite disheartened by what it perceives as a lackluster response from the other side, hence this potentially powerful relationship finds itself grappling with frustration, disappointment and discontent. This paper seeks to identify the issues from an NRI perspective as well as from the government of India point of view, and provide viable solutions to improve upon the situation to benefit the interests of the Diaspora and India as well.
